Integrated Grain Processors Co-Operative Inc. and Caldwell Securities Ltd. announce new transfer platform for co-operative shares

Aylmer, ON [April 26, 2011] – In a move to create liquidity for its shareholders, Integrated Grain Processors Co-operative Inc. (IGPC) announces the immediate launch of its share transfer platform. The new platform is designed to allow the purchase and sale of preference shares between current and potential shareholders of IGPC. An Alymer, Ontario-based fuel ethanol processing company, IGPC has been operating in the heart of Ontario corn country since the fall of 2008.

To support its new platform, IGPC has partnered with one of Canada's most respected independent investment advisory firms, Caldwell Securities Ltd. (Caldwell), to create a Canadian co-operative share transfer platform. "Our firm is very proud of our seven year association with Canada's largest co-operatively owned ethanol plant," says Brendan Caldwell, Director of Caldwell. "We believe IGPC's new share transfer platform will provide value and liquidity for its shareholders, and enable a broad range of investors interested in helping the environment to become new IGPC members."

"We made a commitment to our shareholders to provide a mechanism to deliver a higher degree of liquidity; the launch of this share transfer signals an exciting new chapter in our history," says Tom Cox, Chair of IGPC. "We've worked very hard to develop a profitable business, contributing to regional economic growth and providing a renewable, environmentally friendly fuel source for consumers. IGPC looks forward to sharing the success of our business with new members."

At IGPC's recent annual general meeting, CEO Jim Grey announced the financial results of the previous fiscal year which included a $12.2 million net income and an approximately $5.3M ($0.50 per share) distribution to existing shareholders. Additional financial results are available on IGPC's website at www.igpc.ca.

All share transfers are conducted through Caldwell. Interested investors can find more information by contacting Caldwell at 1-800-387-0859 or igpc@caldwellsecurities.com.

Forward-Looking Statements

This release includes forward-looking statements and potential future circumstances and developments. Forward-looking statements regarding future performance are subject to risks and uncertainties, and actual results may differ materially. Due to fluctuations in gross margins and expenses, an increase in revenue does not directly correlate to an increase in net earnings.

Caldwell Securities Ltd. is a member of the Investment Industry Regulatory Organization of Canada (IIROC) and the Canadian Investor Protection Fund (CIPF).
